PROJECT MONITORING AND EVALUATION

Course Code:

Credit Hours: 2

Course Objectives

After completing this course, the students will be able to:

- Develop an understanding of the characteristics of an effective M & E system
- Explore how to design and manage an effective M & E system
- Apply an M & E Framework
- Design and implement a new or improved results based on monitoring and evaluation system
- Identify key success areas and performance indicators

Course Contents

PROJECT MONITORING AND EVALUATION

Chapter One
Monitoring and Evaluation: Introduction

- Overview of Monitoring and Evaluation
- Monitoring
- Evaluation
- Research
- Monitoring and Evaluation System
- Steps to Developing an M & E System

CHAPTER TWO: DEVELOPING INDICATORS

- Definition: Indicators
- Guidelines for Developing Indicators
- Hierarchy of Indicators
- Setting Priorities for Monitoring and Evaluation
- Selecting which Results to Monitor and Evaluation

CHAPTER THREE: DATA COLLECTION

- Primary and Secondary Data
- Definitions: Primary and Secondary Data
- Common Primary Data Collection Method
- Limitations and Advantages of Using Secondary Data
- Assessing Data Quality: Primary and Secondary Statistical Data
- Quantitative and Qualitative Methodologies
- Data Management
- Definition: Data Management
- Data management Scenarios